

I have no problem with Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to show the program "Stolen Honor". The right of the press to have an editorial voice is important in a democracy.

Under federal rules, however, they are required to provide equal time to the Kerry campaign. It is the FCC's obligation to enforce this rule. I urge you to act quickly to enforce the equal time rule. Thanks.